Airports:

Harstad/Narvik Airport (EVE) and Bodø Airport (BOO) provide more extensive flight connections, making them accessible options for those visiting Lofoten. BOO requires a Ferry. Svolvær Airport (SVJ) is serviced by Widerøe Airlines, which operates small propeller planes for its regional flights. Leknes Airport (LKN) is conveniently located just a stone's throw away from the town of Leknes. The airport is very small, similar to Svolvær Airport, and is served by the same small propeller aircraft operated by Widerøe Airlines that fly between Leknes and Bodø.
